Adoptable! :)

Meet Daisy — a girl finally getting the second chance she deserves. Before entering foster care, she spent much of her life living in a garage without the comfort, stability, and companionship every dog should know. Since then, her foster family has watched her slowly blossom into a devoted and affectionate companion. She's a sweetheart. She would thrive in a calm, lower-activity home with a single person or couple (no children) willing to continue giving her the understanding and stability she has worked so hard to trust. Daisy will need ongoing pain management, in return she'll offer unwavering loyalty, gentle companionship, and a whole lot of love. Daisy is spayed and up to date on all age-appropriate vaccinations. Adoption Fee $150.

News & Info

Studies show that feline health is directly linked to mental stimulation and physical activity. When cats can engage their natural hunting instincts (pounding, tracking, capturing) it lowers stress and keeps their metabolism in check. ~KitNipBox

Rescued in August!

Mango came from Freedom Ride Rescue in California! They reached out for help with 31 dogs that needed fosters because they unfortunately have to close their doors. SCHS was more than happy to help fellow rescues! Thanks, Halvorsons, for taking her in!

Happy Tail!

Oscar (formerly Rocky) joined my little family as Snuffles (SCHS alumna) and I were still a little bruised from the loss of the other two members of our fur-family earlier in the year. When SCHS listed kittens for adoption, it seemed time to bring someone new into our family. I had originally thought I was there to see a different kitten, but Rocky kept coming to sit in my lap, so that was that. At home, Oscar settled in quickly and soon was snuggling up with Snuffles like he'd always been there. His kitten playfulness brought Snuffles back to life, and now I can count on them spending hours on the floor rolling around or playing with toys. When he finally runs out of energy, he stretches out next to me on his back and sleeps without a care in the world. ~Jessica

Thanks, Miss Lydia!

Miss Lydia decided that for her birthday party instead of gifts for herself she would request that her friends and family give donations for the dogs and cats in need. Her mom reached out to the Steele County Humane Society to present all the donations that were received. We are so appreciative of all the gifts that she was able to gather for all our fur-friends in need. Thank you, Lydia, for your kind and generous gifts! We appreciate you!
